Course Objective

Law is an autonomous discipline and has its own materials and methods. However, law is related to other processes in society, mainly social, political and cultural. This course is designed to familiarise the students with basic research skills, sources of legal materials, to find the law and case law and to make the students appreciate law in the context of other social processes. The course will lay groundwork for a student to think and act like a lawyer.

Course Outcomes (COs)

- Describe the main ideas of law and its relationships with various disciplines
- Classify the different laws, wrongs, and legal systems
- Write a research essay
- Find law from various legal materials
- Apply case law techniques and rules of interpretation in legal studies
