Course Teacher:Mr. Ayush Jha & Ms. Tilaka N S	Date of Preparation: 23 February 2022
Course Plan Reviewer: Dr. Manojkumar V. Hiremath	Date of Review: 25 February 2022

Course Objective:

The students of law after understanding the provisions and interpretation of Part III and Part IV of the Constitution of India are expected to know and understand the functioning of various constitutional machineries and institutions established under the Constitution of India. Since all the fundamental rights are enforceable against the State, and the concept of State encompasses different institutions that are established for the effective implementation of the different provisions of the constitution and to achieve the objectives that are enshrined in the preamble of the constitution and to perform the functions that are incorporated in the DPSP, it is expected that the students shall have comprehensive knowledge of functioning of all those institutions and also judicial interpretation of the provisions governing those institutions, powers and functions of those institutions. Therefore, this course is designed to provide a detailed account of composition, powers, functions
